

EXHIBIT 3

SHEEHAN & ASSOCIATES, P.C.

Spencer Sheehan

Mr. Sheehan represents parties in a range of false advertising litigation. After Mr. Sheehan became an attorney in late 2011, he worked on behalf of municipalities and local government agencies in legal disputes. Following this experience, Mr. Sheehan worked for a plaintiff's law firm representing individuals subjected to violations of state and federal laws related to minimum wage, workplace safety and discrimination.

Of notable actions by Mr. Sheehan on behalf of consumers includes, Liberski, et al v. Rhapsody International Inc., San Francisco County, California Superior Court, Case No. No. CGC-12-517061. In 2014, the parties reached a class wide settlement ("Rhapsody Subscriber Litigation Settlement"). Mr. Sheehan, with the California firm of Bramson, Plutzik, Mahler & Birkhaeuser, LLP, were appointed as lead counsel.

In December 2016, Mr. Sheehan began focusing his practice exclusively on consumer advertising issues exclusively. He has been on the forefront of food labeling cases based on original, instead of derivative types of claims.

For instance, Mr. Sheehan was the first attorney to address "raw" juice products which were alleged to be treated with a non-thermal technology which had substantially the same effects as traditional thermal pasteurization. See e.g. Campbell v. Freshbev LLC, Case No. 1:16-cv-07119 (E.D.N.Y.), Campbell v. Freshbev LLC, 322 F. Supp. 3d 330, 342 (E.D.N.Y. 2018) ("Therefore, plaintiff has successfully pleaded his GBL §§ 349 and 350 claims with respect to the 'unpasteurized' label on the Cranberry juice."). These cases attempted to apply the applicable law to the effects of novel technologies which were not considered at the time the FDA enacted regulations in this area.

Mr. Sheehan's pro bono work includes representing people with exotic or non-traditional animal companions. This includes his efforts, with local Florida counsel, on behalf of a Floridian who came to possess an alligator over six feet in length, alleged to be in violation of Florida's wildlife laws. Mr. Sheehan's efforts contributed to resolution of that issue and allowed the woman and gator to remain together. See John Breslin, Lakeland woman keeps alligator, thanks to efforts of lawyer tied to subway shooter's squirrel eviction case, Florida Record, January 4, 2017.

Mr. Sheehan holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from Georgetown University in Foreign Service (2002) and a Master's Degree in International Relations from the School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS), Johns Hopkins University (2006). Mr. Sheehan obtained a Juris Doctorate from Fordham University School of Law (2010). Mr. Sheehan also was a member of the United States Marine Corps as a Reservist.
